TECHNOLOGY GOES HOME PROGRAM EVALUATION

WHO WE ARE: Center for Social Policy
McCormack Institute
University of Massachusetts Boston

WHAT THIS IS ABOUT: We are conducting this evaluation to learn how to make the TGH program work best for the people it serves. Program staff want to understand the areas in which the program works well, and improve those in which it could do better.

YOUR PARTICIPATION: We are asking you to agree to have 1-2 members of our evaluation team watch the activities in your classroom, today and at one additional class, later in the session. The observation will last about an hour. They will take notes; however these notes (and what they watch) will focus on the entire class as a whole, not your personal situation. Your participation will be entirely anonymous.
